FROM REV. HEATHER

In order to get the most out of Lent together, let us begin with a brief overview of what this season is all about. By the 4th century, Lent had become a forty days long time of preparation for church membership and baptism and for the excommunicated to prepare for reuniting with the faith community on Easter Sunday. There was always an element of penitence, making amends, praying more often, fasting from certain foods or during certain times, and above all, Lent has been held by the church as a time for all members to embrace education about Christianity.

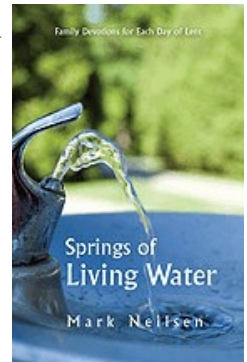

Following in that tradition, Presbyterians have honored the season of Lent with more opportunities for worship and bible study always keeping the emphasis on who we are as baptized people who live and breathe life in a post-resurrection world. We tend to shy away from focusing too much on the suffering of the Lenten journey in favor of anticipating the defining moment when the stone is rolled away from the mouth of the tomb. Lent begins with Ash Wednesday which is all about facing one's own mortality. And why not? Death has no power over us anymore, now that we are baptized and called by God, we have already died in the waters of baptism (the old life has gone). Now we rise up, (the new life has begun) and live into everlasting life with God.

Engaging actively in making peace with our finite human existence during Lent grows us spiritually and deepens our faith. For this we were called.

As a community of believers, we invite all to enjoy this Lent and spend extra time with God and God's people here at Northwood. Many of us will be using the daily devotional, "Springs of Living Water" by Mark Nielsen. Be a part of honoring God daily with a prayer experience for yourself and your family, and know that Jesus walks with you whenever you do.

Rev. Heather

Scout Sunday was celebrated on Sunday, February 13, recognizing the 25 years Cub Scout Pack 771 has been associated with Northwood Church and the 101st year of Scouting in America.

The Cub Scouts presented the colors at the beginning of worship and provided the chancel flowers. During the Children's Message, Rev. Heather introduced the Scouts and the Northwood children. The scouts also attended Enrichment. This special day honored not only the Cub Scouts, but also the Boy Scouts, Girls Scouts and Brownies.

Scout Master Jon Moser expressed gratitude for Northwood's hospitality to the Scouts and praised the Pack's achievements; they have more ribbons on their flag than other packs in the area. Pack 771 is only one of the many community groups using our building for their activities. Opening our doors to our neighbors is one way we are making Christ known.

Rachel Hardy passed away on February 11, 2011. She is survived by her daughter Carrie Ryan (Craig) of North East, MD, son Amos R. Hardy, Jr. (Andrea) of Shepherdstown, WV, and 6 grandchildren.

Rachel graduated from Queens, College and married Amos Hardy in 1951. She was a member of the original staff when Northwood High School in Silver Spring, opened in 1956. At Northwood she taught Home Economics until she retired to raise her children. In the 70's she began substitute teaching at Paint Branch and Montgomery Blair High Schools. Rachel loved to travel and never ceased looking for opportunities to grow and learn. She joined Northwood Church almost two years ago and was active in the Bible Study. We will miss her.

THERE'S AN AUTHOR IN OUR MIDST

When I found that our Jeremi Duru at Northwood has a book published I was excited. When I looked it up and read Amazon's web page I became more excited and ordered it. When I read it I became still more excited. The book is called "Advancing the Ball; Race, Reformation and the Quest for Equal Coaching Opportunity in the NFL." It's a good book and an important one too. It tells a story that needs to be told about race relations, prejudice and unfair hiring practices that hurt not only those who don't get the employment opportunity, but also the ones who limit those opportunities. It's also a story about how several very high profile lawyers got together on a civil rights project and caused some positive change to happen to a huge monopoly of rich "good old boy" owners without filing a lawsuit. Now that's a story! But don't take my word for it. On Sunday (2/20/11) Jason Reed, sports columnist for the Washington Post, based his entire column titled, "Adding Transparency to the Rooney Rule", on Jeremi's book. He described it as "...his outstanding new book..."

The Book Group was quite abuzz when Jeremi said he'd love to come to the April meeting to discuss his book. This should give everyone a chance to read the book, then get it signed by the author.

John Slavcoff, newest Book Group member!

FROM THE HOPE MINISTRY

PLEDGE

REPORT

It's not too late!

From The Financial Secretary

Well, here we are - almost spring. I am going to nag you one last time for your pledges. If you want to have envelopes and a statement of your contributions, you have to give me a pledge card. More importantly, if you want to make a commitment to our work here at Northwood, you will feel better if you put it in writing. You don't even have to fill out the card - I'll do it for you if you call me. So far sixty-two members and friends have pledged $208,452. Thank you.

Even though I'm not going to nag, you may pledge at any time during the year, or change your pledge if your situation changes. Just a reminder: the yellow envelope is for initial offering, which helps pay for the envelopes. We suggest $3.00. The blue envelope is for the per capita that we are required to pay to Presbytery. That is $34.00 this year. Last year's statements and this year's envelopes are on a table in Makemie Hall. Stay healthy and think "Spring".

Gail McGuire, Financial Secretary

We are so glad to see Gail back in church after recuperating from her injury.

Hope Ministry

There are always many jobs, big and small, that need to be done in a building that is 50 years old, and we'd like to thank all those who help out. In particular, big thanks go to Elmer Lantz for cutting up and clearing away a tree which fell across the large parking lot, and Bernard Stinson who has offered to help Elmer with another fallen tree. Another big thanks goes to Mort Rian who has fixed the door closures which had been broken off, and the door stop into Makemie Hall – now the door can stand open for everyone to go to fellowship on Sundays. Fred May and Mac McIntire help out and Kelly Sharpless is doing some repairs around the church. At the moment Kelly and Elmer are fixing the folding door across the sanctuary which has literally fallen apart with age.

Soon it will be spring, and we will need volunteers to help with weeding and planting. If there are any other "handy" people out there, or those who enjoy gardening, who could be called on when needed, please get in touch with the Hope Ministry or the Church Office.

Peter McPhie, Hope Ministry

Recycling Program - Recently I filed our annual recycling report to Montgomery County, and that prompted me to remind everyone of our recycling program. In Makemie Hall there are two recycling containers, one for comingled (cans, plastic and glass) and the other for paper and cardboard. On the notice board beside the recycling bins there is a poster showing what exactly can be recycled. Let's make Northwood as green as we can.

MISSION INFORMATION

Thank You

We received a Thank You letter from Mid County United Ministries for 30 bags of groceries to help provide emergency assistance to low and moderate income families in Wheaton, Aspen Hill and Kensington. At this time of year these staples are very much in need. Please continue your help and remember these items must not be out of date or they will have to be discarded.

Thanksgiving in February was held on Tuesday, February 22nd, when 15 ladies from Northwood with their friends, some from other Presbyterian Churches, met for lunch at the Nova Europa in Kemp Mill. Everyone had a good time of fellowship and at the same time, the restaurant donated a portion of the money to help feed the hungry in our community. Others members of the congregation enjoyed dinner out at other participating restaurants.

Other Needs:

Interfaith Works has a wish list for Carroll House- 301-587-3904 (Sara Cherner) Coffee, sugar, oatmeal packets. Interfaith is offering training in Emergency Assistance Resources: Homeless Services - and asking for other training needs. You will find the request form on the Mission bulletin board across from the kitchen. There are several choices of location and time for this training.

From Ginger Boyd - On 1 March, a young linguist, Joey Lovestrand will be arriving in Yaounde for three months to do some linguistic work. I will be supervising him. Please pray that our work goes well.

I've been having some health problems. I've had bouts of malaria and I am still a bit anemic and worn out by this latest bout. Part of the problem is that I haven't taken any vacation time for over a year. I am hoping to take a week off in early March (not going anywhere this time, just trying to rest and relax at home). Unfortunately, it is not proving easy to find a week that I can take off. Please pray that I will be able to take time off and use it well to help recover some of my strength.

Thank you for your prayers for Baboga Achille, the Nulibie translator who was in the motorcycle-car accident last month. He is doing much better. He was able to get surgery on his leg and arm thanks to the gifts of many people. He's doing well, and getting around better each day.

God's blessings and my heartfelt thanks for your prayers each month.

Ginger
